

Project Star THE VISION OF A 4 YEAR OLD

Hello ... My name is Noah and I am four years old. (I will be five in November.) I am a kindergartener at Lumbini Child Development Center near Downtown Los Angeles.

I have a new project. It is called Project Star (because I like stars). I want to collect blankets for people who don't have blankets ... the people that sleep on the streets or sidewalks ... the kids that don't have beds or houses. It is cold outside and dark at night. It makes me sad.

I would not like to sleep on the streets or sidewalks. I might get run over by a car. If I didn't have a house, I would live with my grandma. My mom said that not everyone has a grandma that they can live with. I like my house and my bed. I wish all kids could have a house and a desk to do their homework.

I want to collect lots and lots of blankets (both new and almost new) ... like 10, or 100, or even 100,000. Then, I will pass them out to the kids and they won't be cold anymore. My friends at school are making flowers for the mommies so they can feel like princesses. We are going to put a flower on every blanket.

Please help me to reach my goal! I am collecting blankets until November 1, 2007. I will be passing out the blankets before Thanksgiving. Thank you ...

LOVE,

NOAH

If you have any questions or want to know how many blankets that I have collected, please send an e-mail to me at projectstar100@yahoo.com. (Or, you can just send an e-mail to say "Hi".) I love getting mail!
