To who it may concern,

I have been going UCS for 4 years and it has had such a great positive impact on me. Sometimes, my mornings aren't that great, but when I get to school all my friends and teachers lift my spirits and they make it better. This school is so great, I can't even put it into words. When I first came to this school, I thought it would be like overly Christian, but I was wrong. I came from a public school and they would make fun of me because I was Christian. They would push me around when the teachers weren't looking. I lost so many friends because I was Christian. Then, I came to UCS and it was so great. I could talk about Jesus Christ all I wanted and I wouldn't get pushed around. This is a great school.
