

To whom this may concern,
Dear whom,

I'm a senior at Upland Christian this year, and this school means the world to me. So I'm writing this letter in the most respectful way possible that you please don't buy my school. So many good memories have come this place and it would make me so sad to see the younger generations deprived of the same opportunities opened up to me. It was a hopeful dream of mine that I would be able to come back, once graduated, and visit all the teachers and friends who have helped me during the hardest times in my life. These people that make up UCS are just casual friends, they have become my second family. I know God placed each one here for a specific purpose and I feel that God's work isn't done here. We aren't in the crisis ~~like~~ one person said we are. We've made it work in the past and haven't failed yet. Till it does I ask that you don't buy our school. We love it here and never want it change. I'm not ready to give up just yet. and neither is my second family.

Sincerely,

the class of '09! ☺
