

to whom it may concern,

Upland Christian has been a part of my life for 14 years. I am 16 years old. As long as I can remember, my mom has been working for this school as a teacher. Both my older brother and older sister have graduated from Upland Christian High School. I, myself, have gone to this school since kindergarden, meaning that this is my 12th year attending. My whole education has been taught by the amazing teachers at Upland Christian. Every single one of them have impacted and changed my life, and without this school I would not be who I am today. I would also not have the same relationship with God if I would not been apart of this school.

The High School has helped me grow and the teachers have taught me life lessons that I will not forget. Mr. Scholz, who is an English teacher here, has taught me to think outside of the box, to analyze and to be creative, all through worshipping God. Mr. Salazar, a math teacher, has taught me to continuously be joyful and find God in every situation. Mr. Williams, another math teacher, has taught me that through all things, easy and hard that you can always turn to God. This isn't all, I could
